100 Years Proud 1918-2018

Washington, DC is one of the top tourist locations in the world. In addition to the White House and the U. S. Capitol, it is the home of the U. S. Marine Corps War Memorial also known as the Iwo Jima Memorial.

WASHINGTON, DC is the perfect location to celebrate the 100th anniversary of women in the Marine Corps. The Nation’s Capital is in an area that has something for everyone to enjoy. Come enjoy the Evening Parade at 8th and I with the President’s Own Band, a trip to the Marine Corps War Memorial and a trip to the National Museum of the Marine Corps. This is the home of the only Women’s Memorial that celebrates women from each of the services at the Women in Military Service for America Memorial (WIMSA) at the gates of Arlington Cemetery.

Since 1918, American women have answered their country’s call to serve. We have served proudly with distinction and honor; each generation evolving but always retaining our proud traditions. Plan to attend the Centennial Convention. It will be steeped in many historical events and activities. Mark your calendar – August 30 - September 3, 2018.
